

The UFF-FSU Chapter Proudly Presents

Legislative Issues and What's on Your Mind?
Q&A with Andy Ford, FEA President

What can FEA do for higher education and FSU faculty?
What can FSU faculty accomplish through FEA?

Andy Ford, FEA President

Tuesday, February 24th, 12:30pm

Weichert Lounge (Rm.220), Rovetta Business Building

Andy Ford serves as the President of the Florida Education Association. FEA represents over 140,000 employees in Florida's public schools, community colleges and universities. FEA members include Pre-K through 12th grade teachers, education staff professionals, and higher education faculty, graduate assistants, and staff. When Ford speaks, Florida political leaders listen. During his tenure as FEA president, Andy Ford has focused on internal organizing and rebuilding the commitment to a grass-roots movement by building healthier locals. He is also an AFT Vice President.

UFF luncheons are open and free to all FSU faculty members. Please join us for an hour of conversation and a complimentary lunch.

RSVP to jtfiorito@comcast.net

The UFF-FSU Chapter is part of the statewide United Faculty of Florida, which is affiliated with the FEA, AFT, NEA, and AFL-CIO.