

ARTICLE 28
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

To be added to the article:

28.4 Expiration of Waivers. The parties acknowledge that all waivers of some or all of the right to collectively bargain over the determination of matters that are mandatory subjects of bargaining contained in this Agreement shall terminate no later than the date this Agreement expires and shall not survive the expiration of this Agreement as part of the status quo.